21 unless the new date falls on a holiday, in which case the hearing will be continued to the subsequent urgent, to the extent possible. Where hearings are necessary, hearings will be conducted, if possible, by 8 the moving papers of immediate and irreparable injury justifying an emergency hearing. The Court will 9 review submissions and will continue or take a matter off-calendar if the Court does not deem that matter 10 sufficiently emergent. The Court, in its discretion, will decide ex parte matters either on the papers or 11 after telephonic hearing. Proposed orders must be submitted to the Court in advance of the hearing. Ex 12 parte matters that the Court determines require a telephonic appearance will be conducted telephonically 13 via the CourtCall system, on Wednesdays and Thursdays. The requirement to obtain prior court 14 permission for CourtCall appearances is waived until further notice. If a matter is to be heard 15 telephonically, the petitioning party must give notice of the procedure to participate to all parties entitled 16 to notice, in compliance with California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1203 and Rule 3.1204.
